DETAILED ACTION

Claim Objections

1. Claims 8 and 10 are objected to because of the following informalities:

With respect to claims 8 and 10, in line 4, “an work main signal” should be changed to - - a work main signal- -.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 1-15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

With respect to claim 1, in lines 24-26, “a main signal signaling processing section (21) for performing signaling processing of a main signal frame to said main signal processing unit” is unclear because the main signal processing unit is a structure, a mechanism, and/or a device, therefore, it is unclear how processing can be performed on a signal frame to a structure.

Claims 2-15 are rejected as they depend upon rejected independent claim 1.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

Art Unit: 2667

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

3. Claim 16 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(a) as being anticipated by Lovelace, G. et al (WO 98/25436).

With respect to claim 16, Lovelace discloses a frame timing re-clocking method for an SDH transmission apparatus which accommodates main signal frames of a plurality of channels compliant with an SDH transmission system (Fig. 6), characterized in that

A frame timing of a received signal main signal frame is re-clocked to an intra-apparatus reference frame timing without using pointer processing to establish synchronism (page 33, lines 3-7 discloses that local timing reference signals of the network interface islands are synchronized and phase-aligned to one of the timing signals embedded in the transmitted data frames from the distributed services nodes. Herein, local timing reference signals are frame timings associated with the received main signal frames, e.g., time stamped received signals by the input interfaces, etc... and embedded timing signals are intra-apparatus generated frame timings. Further, no pointer processing or pointer re-timers are used to establish synchronism for each direction of transmission).

Conclusion

4. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Wolf (US Patent No. 5,917,870) discloses synchronization monitoring in a network element.

Art Unit: 2667

Fukunaga et al (US Patent No. 6,118,795) discloses reception pointer processing apparatus in SDH transmission system.
